Arts & Businesses Join Together for “A Month of Art” in Hailey, Idaho

Local artists will be exhibiting their glasswork, jewelry, paintings, photography and sculpture with businesses throughout the month, as July is “A Month of Art” in Hailey, Idaho. This year, the Hailey Arts Commission has partnered with the Chamber of Commerce, the Wood River Arts Alliance, Fiddleleaf Productions, local businesses and city government to provide free art events throughout the month.

“A Month of Art,” which partners local area artists with businesses in a month-long exhibition of paintings, drawings, prints, photographs, jewelry and sculpture, is sponsored by the Wood River Arts Alliance, Hailey Chamber of Commerce and Hailey Arts Commission. While the work will be installed all month, there is an evening Art Walk on Friday, July 17 from 5 to 8 p.m., when one can sip wine, stroll the streets and see some of the finest work created in the Wood River Valley.

The “Month of Art” will be complemented by other art events that happen throughout the summer in Hailey. Among them are: Monday July 13 as the “Night of Music,” with over a dozen restaurants, bars, coffee houses and stores playing host to rotating free, live musical events from 4:00 to 9:30 p.m. It is a family-oriented walking exploration of the downtown core and different types of music. The “Night of Music” is sponsored by the Hailey Chamber of Commerce and the Hailey Arts Commission, and produced in association with Fiddleleaf Productions.
