Emergency Services-Fire Department Fireworks Regulations and Commemorative Coin Challenge

New Fireworks Restrictions

Did you know there are two restrictions on fireworks in Hailey City Code? Aerial fireworks are NOT allowed at any time.

Nonaerial Common Fireworks may be used only during the restricted time periods below:

1. Independence Days - for the periods of time beginning at midnight July 1 and ending at midnight July 5.
2. New Years - beginning at midnight December 30 and ending at midnight January 1.

Coin Challenge - 7th Grade Student Wins

The Hailey Fire Department initiated a commemorative coin challenge in local schools. Students were asked to submit a coin design and an essay explain the design. The winner of this challenge was seventh-grade student Emelia Morgan. We've printed Emilia's essay below:

"The Fire represents the threat posed by wildfire and neighborhood fires in our mountain community. The trees and the stag show the vulnerability of nature. The ring around the medallion represents the dedicated work the firemen do in order to protect our community and the irreplaceable animals that have made their homes here.

"The Fire Department symbol is on the medallion because it represents the brave and altruistic work that the firemen do both within and outside of our community.

"I used four colors on my medallion. I chose the green because it represent the harmony and peacefulness of Idaho's flora and fauna. Black is represented to show the power and strength that makes up our Fire Department. Red, though associated with fire, is also a color of vibrancy and courage. My fourth color is yellow representing energy, and is associated with the optimistic thinking required to tackle such tasks.

"In creating this project for the Fire Department of Hailey, it encouraged me to look further into the skills and sacrifices that are required to be a Fireman in Idaho's rugged terrain and growing communities. (cont next column)

Coin Challenge - Emelia Morgan's Winning Essay & Coin

"In learning about the original coin challenge I was inspired by the novelty of the tradition, and how it gives us a chance to share stories about individuals and places. I enjoy that the coins allow stories of experience and regions to be passed on over time. Each coin shares details and stories that are regionally specific and I think this helps to keep the tradition of trading the coins moving forward." Emelia Morgan, 7th Grade Essayist.

HAILEY & KETCHUM ARTS COMMISSIONS SHOWCASE PUBLIC ART IN REMODELED FRIEDMAN MEMORIAL AIRPORT TERMINAL

RL Rowsey, Hailey Arts Commission Chair, notes "We have a tremendous resource of talent here among our local artists and galleries and our collective goal is to integrate art into the community in as many ways as possible." Claudia McCain, Ketchum Arts Commission Chair, says "We are pleased to have the opportunity to work with the airport to help make the new terminal space as beautiful and welcoming as possible to the traveling public." Art will be on display at the airport through the end of summer, and more art may be added as determined by available space. These commissions plan to continue to work with the airport to facilitate artwork for public display in an ongoing program designed to showcase the Wood River Valley and highlight local artists.

Jason Georgiades Installs Woodside Boulevard Bike Racks

Jason Georgiades recently installed new bike racks at three Mountain Rides public transit stops along Woodside Boulevard. Jason designed and fabricated the racks, which include inverted “U” designs, bicycle chain ring designs, and a working soroban/abacus. The racks are located at three different transit stops:

Baldy View, Copper Ranch and Moonlight Drive. Sometimes public transit users are unable to take their bikes on the bus because the bus bike rack is full. Other transit users may prefer to simply ride their bike to the bus stop and leave it there. The new racks make it easy to lock up bikes under either scenario.

Two thirds of the artist-designed bike racks for Woodside are now installed. Watch for racks at the final three stops from Nate Galpin; sure to be worth waiting for!

Public Works

Landscaping, gardening and Trees in the Right-of-Way

In many cases the public right-of-way is much wider than the paved surface of the street. Trees within the city right-of-ways are considered public trees. Trimming or removing them is allowed only with an approved encroachment permit. The same goes for any landscaping projects in the right-of-way. The permit is designed to guide landscaping projects with safety in mind; traffic visibility, proper grade and drainage for longer lasting asphalt, and placement so that snow plowing doesn't destroy your finished product.

Without an approved encroachment permit you risk the city requiring all the work performed in the right-of-way to be removed and returned to the prior condition. These permits can be revoked at anytime and the city is not responsible for any damage caused to work done in this area, from snow plowing or otherwise. However, with a permit at least the city has an opportunity to mitigate any risks or issues with you in advance verses requiring everything to be removed after the fact.

What is an encroachment?

An encroachment is any excavation, digging, paving, landscaping, and construction of an improvement or placement of personal property within an Easement or Right of Way. Encroachments include, but are not limited to, fences, sidewalks, driveways, mailboxes, newspaper boxes, utility boxes and poles, trees, shrubs, grass, sprinklers and other landscaping improvements.

What is a right of way?

Right of way means any property owned by or dedicated to the city for the purposes of providing city services and general circulation to the public. Such rights of way include, but are not limited to, the following: public streets and the space between those streets and private property lines, alleys and sidewalks.

How do I obtain an Encroachment Permit?

Submit an Encroachment Permit application. An application fee is required at the time of submittal ($50 for a residential application, $75 for a commercial application). The city will review the application and prepare the permit. Inspection fees, if necessary, will be invoiced to the applicant, and are due when the permit is issued.
