Oath of Office to Hailey's Elected Officials Community Celebration at The Mint for Outgoing City Officials

Hailey, ID: On Friday, January 10, 2020, Mayor Haemmerle will preside over the last meeting of his two terms of office as Mayor of the City of Hailey. During the City Council meeting, the oath of office will be taken by Mayor-Elect Martha Burke and Council-Elect Sam Linnet and Juan Martinez. Elected officials, board, commission and committee members who have served and are stepping down will be honored, including Mayor Haemmerle, Councilmen Pat Cooley and Jeff Engelhardt, and members retiring from Hailey's Parks & Lands Board, Tree Committee and Arts & Historical Preservation Commission. The meeting will be opened by Mayor Haemmerle and closed by Mayor Burke, with a community celebration to follow.

The City Council meeting will begin at 5:30 PM on Friday January 10, 2020 and will be followed by a community celebration at The Mint from 6:00—8:00 PM. The entire community is welcome to celebrate and thank retiring city officials at the meeting and/or the Mint. Refreshments and a no-host bar will be available.

The new city government will take up regular business on Monday, January 13, 2020 at 5:30 PM. During the first meeting of the newly elected officials, Mayor Burke will make her nomination for a city council member to take City Council Seat #1, which has been held by Burke since she won it in a run-off election in 1993 against long-term incumbent Joe Macarillo. After the nomination is confirmed by the council, a council president will be selected. Mayor Burke will then nominate a Planning & Zoning member for confirmation by the council to fill the seat left open by Sam Linnet.
