AGENDA ITEM SUMMARY

DATE: 06/15/15 ²⁹ DEPARTMENT: Public Works DEPT. HEAD SIGNATURE: MP

SUBJECT: Resolution 2015-51, Approval for Public Works Director and another city staff designee to administratively approve change orders for the biosolids handling facility for amounts $10,000 or less.

AUTHORITY: ID Code _____ IAR _____ City Ordinance/Code _____
(IF APPLICABLE)

BACKGROUND/SUMMARY OF ALTERNATIVES CONSIDERED:

Administrative approval of some change orders is necessary to expeditiously complete this construction project. Delays to wait for formal approval from the Council could cost time and money. This administrative approval was allowed during Tiger II/Woodside Blvd. project and it is customary to approve smaller change orders in this manner.

Monthly change order summaries would still be given to the Council for ratification and approval.

DESIGNEE TO ADMINISTRATIVELY APPROVE CHANGE ORDER FOR AMOUNTS
UP TO $10,000 FOR THE BIOSOLIDS HANDLING FACILITY PROJECT.

WHEREAS, the City of Hailey desires to expeditiously complete the Biosolids Handling Facility and recognizes that by allowing change order of a certain amount to be approved without waiting for formal authorization from the City Council will help facilitate this desire.

Call to order 5:36:59 PM by Mayor Haemmerle.

Open Session for Public Comments:

5:37:14 PM Peter Lobb – comment on Circus, report on Channel 11 news regarding the circus, it did not look great on Hailey. Lobb feels council made good decision at time. Going forward, now is the time to pass an ordinance to ban exotic animals, because 1) people who want this ordinance are passionate people on the right side of history 2) if this festers, next year, the Rodeo could be at risk 3) is it ethical for “us” to abuse animals for our entertainment? Lobb thinks the smart way to go is to do the ordinance very soon, gain the moral high ground and save the rodeo.

PROCLAMATIONS AND PRESENTATIONS:

PP 243 Nuclear waste presentation from Snake River Alliance – Kelsey Nunez and Beatrice Brailsford

5:50:50 PM Mayor Haemmerle hands over floor to Beatrice Brailsford.

5:51:44 PM Beatrice Brailsford presents to council. Brailsford is with the Snake River Alliance (SRA). SRA helped to solidify the 1995 agreement. Brailsford feels that the agreement has worked fairly well. The most helpful part of this agreement is in not allowing commercial spent fuel into the state. One of the key impediments to solving the nuclear waste problem is the governments' lack of commitment to fulfilling the promise of the 1995 agreement. In 2011, the state agreed to let in commercial waste for testing. In January 2014, the Attorney General (AG) and the Governor agreed to 2 shipments of 25 pounds of fuel to come into the state.

5:57:26 PM Haemmerle asks a question about the 1995 agreement and 2011 agreement with regards to Commercial fuel and if it was allowed? Brailsford responds.5:58:20 PM

Haemmerle wonders if commercial fuel is a problem if the total amount is not increasing in size. Brailsford recounts her memory of the 1995 referendum, she remembers pride in the fact that we were not allowing commercial fuel into the state.

6:00:22 PM Brailsford talks about the proposed 2nd shipment of 25 spent nuclear rods from a commercial power plant. The entire shipment of 25 nuclear rods are sister rods and are coming from the North Anna Power plant in Virginia. Brailsford talks about spent fuel and details about when they are removed from service now versus a long time ago. One of Brailsford's concerns with the spent fuel (Hyperna), nuclear rods are now allowed to remain in the reactor for longer, creating a more powerful spent rod and the potential for the cladding to be less flexible and more prone to cracking. We are being told that former governors are taking heat for not allowing commercial fuel. Brailsford announces that 20 tons of sister rods would come into our state within 10-15 years. Idaho National Lab (INL) consistently states that they are the only qualified place to do this commercial fuel testing. We've brought in 27 tons of fuel to date. Now we only have 28 tons left to bring in for the total amount allowed by the 1995 agreement.

6:05:37 PM Haemmerle asks Brailsford how she knows about this additional 20 tons of spent commercial fuel that is planned to come into the state.

Brailsford plays a recording from the Sept. 26, 2013, meeting of the Idaho Leadership in Nuclear Energy Commission (LINE). John Grossenbacher is speaking, he is the director of the Idaho National Laboratory and President of Battelle Energy Alliance.

Grossenbacher makes the connection between the 25 rods and the 20 tons of additional commercial spent fuel. Grossenbacher states that this is not a near term issue/discussion maybe 5 years away. To bring this in, it would be required to get approval from state and authorities. The recording Brailsford is playing tonight can be found on the Idaho Public Television website and the Snake River Alliance website. Brailsford plays another conversation from the same meeting. 6:10:35 PM Grossenbacher talks about the state and people needing to authorize this fuel to come in. There is no process to facilitate bringing in this additional 20 tons of commercial fuel.

Haemmerle asked for Brailsford to email this audio of the Idaho Leadership meeting to he and the council.

6:13:05 PM Brown asks a question to Brailsford regarding leverage with existing agreements and compliance with the documents to timelines. Brown mentioned that the Attorney General (AG) claimed the only leverage was in agreeing to the 2011 commercial fuel shipments in order to clean up liquid waste currently here and a risk to our state. Haemmerle adds a question onto Brown's question. We are not adding more tonnage amount. We never heard anyone claim that addition fuel beyond the original 55 tons allowed by the 1995 agreement would be allowed added Haemmerle. Brailsford agreed.

One of the problem with the Integrated Waste Treatment facility was that it was supposed to be up and running in 2011. And it is still not running today. Department of Energy (DOE) has already required the cleanup of the liquid waste, Brailsford states that this is already required by the agreements we have. Brailsford doesn't understand why we agreed to allow commercial fuel into the state.

6:16:32 PM Haemmerle asked the AG when he presented to council on May 18, 2015, and asked what happened in the oversight of this 1995 agreement. AG responded that there was a dedicated person in charge of overseeing this agreement, and her position was eliminated due to politics. No one will give us any information on this topic. Haemmerle asked for an overview of this situation from Brailsford.

6:18:12 PM Brailsford thinks the safety of Idaho should not be in the responsibility of one person. In 1974 the Governor's Blue Ribbon commission declined to support commercial fuel in the state. In the early 1990's there was a lot of public support of keeping commercial fuel out, and the result was the 1995 agreement. Idaho has an INL oversight program. Brailsford states that the state still has its responsibility in oversight.

6:21:59 PM Haemmerle recaps discussions.

6:22:19 PM Burke wonders if the AG's office knows about the 20 tons of additional fuel.

6:23:28 PM Burke recounts the justification of the 2011 agreement. 6:23:52 PM Haemmerle remembers the AG stating that total amount is not increasing.

6:25:30 PM Williamson asks if there have been any lawsuits regarding this federal law on clean up. 6:26:15 PM Brailsford responds. Original deadline for treating liquid waste was 2012. The problem with RIPRA or the 1995 settlement agreement, is DOE is required to remove liquid from the tanks no matter what. Brailsford cites the documents and agreements that require the cleanup of the liquid waste.

6:27:58 PM Haemmerle comments about allowing additional waste to come in to force treatment of the liquid waste already in our state.

6:29:17 PM Williamson asks if the state knows about the recorded meeting? Brailsford responds that the Director of Idaho Commerce is the Chair of the LINE committee.

6:32:15 PM Margaret McDonald Stewart, a former SNA board member speaks to council. Stewart announces that these shipments would be entering the state via roads and bridges and no accountability or notification is required to be given to local authorities.

6:33:22 PM Gerhart Morrison has a question. Morrison wonders why would they want to do this, he answers his own question - money. Brailsford comments, that this commercial fuel would not bring in additional jobs.

6:35:42 PM Haemmerle comments that it is in no one's best interest to ship in additional waste. Morrison speaks again, what is the trade off? Brailsford, answers, trade off is additional fuel – meaning the additional 20 tons.

Haemmerle recaps for Morrison the discussion from the AG's office. Morrison comments again.

6:39:45 PM Keirn asks what is the deadline? Brown answers, until 2019. And a possible award term until 2024.

6:40:29 PM Brailsford feels that Hailey City does have a role in providing its comments to the state regarding this issue.

6:41:14 PM Morrison comments that we are 65 air miles from INL's facility. We need to take a stand and tell these people to use their "lever" authorized in the 1995 agreement to ensure clean up and removal of waste takes place.

6:42:28 PM Kelsey Nunez speaks to council, should talk about the entire project at the same time.

6:43:33 PM Stewart comments again. Kaz Thea asks a question, Brailsford answers.

6:44:37 PM Brown asks a question.

6:45:04 PM Ginna Lagergren Hailey resident speaks to council. Lagergren is a supporter of SRA and applauds council to continue with this conversation and speak up for Hailey. Lagergren thinks people should keep their own waste, don't ship it out of their state.

6:47:43 PM Kaz Thea comments, it is bad enough to have this high hazard waste but traveling on our highways – too dangerous to allow in. Thea announces, moving the waste around is risky in itself.

6:49:02 PM Brailsford, this spring DOE and state renegotiated the dates and have assessed fines for not meeting the deadlines. In that negotiation, if DOE fails, there are implications.

6:50:25 PM Mayor may adopt a Resolution on this topic at a future date.

Martha Burke dismisses herself from the meeting.

MEMORANDUM

To: Hailey Mayor and Council Members

From: Heather Dawson, Hailey City Administrator

Date: June 29, 2015 City Council Meeting

RE: III-A – Consideration of Hailey's Withdrawal from III-A

III-A JPA Consideration of Withdrawal

During the June 1, 2015 Hailey City Council meeting, I was directed to secure quotes to compare with III-A insurance costs for Hailey. In that process we learned several things:

Affordable Care Act (ACA) Effect on Insurance Design

1. We are unable to get quotes on exactly the same benefits design as we currently have with III-A, because the ACA has changed the rules regarding Out Of Pocket Maximum (OOPM). Our current OOPM is $2500, which includes $1000 deductible. Our closest comparison quotes are for plans with $3500 OOPM, which includes $1000 deductible and all co-pays, including direct prescription costs and co-pays.

2. Hailey has 53 employees eligible for insurance at this time, plus 5 elected officials who have waived coverage¹. Two additional employees are budgeted for FY 2016, putting us in a Large Group Employer category with potentially 55 employees. There have historically been two types of Large Group Employer categories: 100 or more employees; and 51-99 employees. Organizations with 50 or less employees are considered small groups. The ACA changes these categories effective January 1, 2016. Small groups will be from 2-99, and large groups will be 100 or more. The group we are currently in, 51-99, will become obsolete UNLESS we choose to grandfather, or UNLESS the State of Idaho chooses to block this federal action and retain groups 51-99 as Large Groups.

3. Underwriting is handled differently on large and small groups. Large groups are required to submit applications from each eligible insured, and the total group risk is assessed in establishing rates. Small groups are required to provide their employees' age, gender, and whether or not any disabilities exist or any extended absences from work have occurred due to health issues. Because of the expectation that on January 1, 2016, many groups now considered large will not grandfather and will move to the small group, the small group is expected to become considerably larger. Underwriters are reluctant to guess how that will affect rates in the small groups in the future.

Quotes for Hailey - Large and Small Group Categories

We have obtained quotes from Regence Blue Shield in both the large and small group categories. These quotes should be considered under four options:

- 1) remain with III-A; consider exiting again in one year.
- 2) exit III-A and grandfather as a large group;
- 3) exit III-A and re-rate to small group on January 1, 2016, as allowed by the ACA;
- 4) exit III-A and become a small group by October 1, 2015. This last option would require reducing our employee pool to 50 eligible insured.

QUOTED EMPLOYEE INSURANCE PREMIUM OPTIONS
			Option 1	Option 2	Option 3	Option 4
			III-A	LG Group	LG Gr Re-Rated	Small Group
			$802 PEPM	$644 PEPM	Hybrid	$452 PEPM
Total Costs for City of Hailey			529,320	425,040	330,000	298,320
Projected Savings over III-A				(104,280)	(199,320)	(231,000)

Within each of these options are a wide variety of choices for benefit design and costs. After the Hailey City Council makes a decision on whether or not to exit the III-A, an employee benefits committee will review all of the quotes and benefit designs, as well as those from other insurance companies. By August, a narrowed group of recommendations will be available for council consideration. For this discussion, we have chosen only one plan design choice in each category: the quote with a design the most similar to what we currently have under the III-A.

Option 1) Remain with III-A; consider exiting again in one year. III-A responded to Mayor Haemmerle's letter requesting more information on rates with Hailey included. In summary, Hailey qualifies for no discounts and III-A Board is not likely to reduce rates further with Hailey factored in. With Hailey excluded, the III-A board had identified that a preliminary rate reduction of 1% would be taken. Final rates will not be set until after III-A knows how many entities will remain with the pool. The current III-A rate of $802 PEPM is used for this discussion.

Option 2) Exit III-A and grandfather as a large group. Blue Shield quote is $644 PEPM.

Option 3) Exit III-A and re-rate to small group on January 1, 2016, as allowed by the ACA. This option uses two rates – the Blue Shield large group rate of $644 PEPM for the first quarter, and a Blue Shield small group rate of $452 PEPM for the nine months remaining in the fiscal year.

Option 4) Exit III-A; become a small group by October 1, 2015. Blue Shield quote is $452 PEPM. The difference in this rate applied to nine months in Option 3 and twelve months in Option 4 amounts to additional savings of $31,680 to the City of Hailey.

Option 4 is also valuable in that it would allow us to obtain quotes from Blue Cross of Idaho, who is under contract with III-A as their third-party administrator (TPA). As such, Blue Cross of Idaho has a no-compete clause in their contract with III-A not to quote business in the 51 or larger group categories.

Option 4 is feasible only with a reduction in staff numbers. The City of Bellevue is currently considering changes to the law enforcement contract with Hailey Police Department. With some contract amendments, Hailey's currently insured/eligible employees² decrease from 53 to 49. With two new positions budgeted, Hailey would then apply a hiring freeze until January 2016 on one of those budgeted positions, to ensure that we remain no larger than 50 throughout the quarter.

Effect on Employees

The Blue Shield quotes save the City of Hailey money, but, because of the higher OOPM, could cost employees up to $1000 more for their health expenses (see comparison chart on next page). Additionally, the quotes from Blue Shield for a spouse or 1 dependent is considerably higher than employees currently pay. Eight of Hailey's employees would be affected, as one currently has a spouse on the policy and seven employees have one child on the policy. Alternatively, the family rate from Blue Shield is lower than current family rates with III-A. See dependent comparisons attached.

The city could opt to pay $500 per employee per year to help cover some of the additional OOPM costs employees may face under Option 2. In addition, the city could offer to pay $100 of spouse/dependent/family premiums to help equalize those costs to what is currently paid through III-A. If Options 3 or 4 materialize into the savings projected, a more robust benefits package could be fashioned for employees, including HRA's or higher amounts of family premiums being paid.

City Council Action

The City Council should understand and discuss this material on June 29, 2015 and make a final decision whether to adopt a resolution to withdraw and so notify III-A, or whether to remain with III-A for another year.

² A personnel handbook amendment making elected officials ineligible for major medical insurance would be necessary to achieve these numbers.

Mayor Fritz X. Haemmerle
City of Hailey
115 Main Street South, Suite H
Hailey, ID 83333

Mayor:

Jacob and I appreciated the opportunity to meet with you, the City attorney, and superintendents regarding the City's benefits. I believe that it was helpful to have a dialogue about your frustrations and, hopefully, we were able to provide answers and information to alleviate your concerns regarding the III-A pool.

While at the meeting, Jacob and I reviewed the policies that had been adopted by the Board of Trustees during the May meeting in Chubbuck. One of those policies was the One-time Rate Reduction. We explained that there were four III-A members that qualified for the 10% reduction based on the March and April preliminary reports. To qualify for this one-time rate reduction a member's loss ratio had to meet the criteria under the policy during the three year period of May 2012 to May 2015. Hailey was one of the members listed on the preliminary reports, which did not include the last several months of the 2015 analysis. We also explained that the final decision would be made at the June Board of Trustees meeting using the May and June reports. It was critical that we factored in April, May, and June reports prior to releasing the final results. The III-A began business on March 2012. We did not receive claims to process/pay until May 2012. The full three years of claims were required to make the final determination which is May 2012 through May 2015.

The referenced report was distributed to all members of the Board of Trustees. Hailey Board member, Heather Dawson, received this information. The final reports presented to the Trustees included the final claim amounts for each city for the period referenced above. Unfortunately, the City of Hailey's claims for March, April, and May were high enough that the City is no longer eligible for the One-time 10% rate reduction because its loss ratio for the three year period exceeded the amount set by policy. The three members that qualified are the City of Chubbuck, City of Soda Springs, and Minidoka Irrigation District.

Robert Schmidt, actuary from Milliman, presented the Preliminary Rate Renewal Report at the Board of Trustees meeting. The report states that the III-A pool could take an 8.9% rate decrease for the FY2015-16 year beginning October 1, 2015. After a lengthy discussion, the Trustees agreed to adopt a preliminary rate of -1% to release to the membership for budgetary purposes at the Annual General Membership meeting on June 10, 2015. The final renewal rate will be adopted at the July Board of Trustees meeting. I do not expect that the rate will change much considering the Trustees' conservative approach in figuring the preliminary rate.

I am pleased to hear that the Hailey City Council has not made a final decision as was erroneously reported in your local newspaper. However, based on a letter that the III-A received from you on January 24, 2014 which states the City's intent to leave the pool and request for dissolution of the pool, I was under the impression that III-A would be receiving notice and a resolution from Hailey in the near future.

I instructed the actuary to prepare the preliminary report without the City of Hailey because of the above mentioned letter. The actuary also excluded two other members based on the assumption they would be leaving the III-A as well. This was done to be conservative and to try and get our rate analysis as close to reality as possible. Removing Hailey from the Preliminary Report did not affect the result significantly. It would shift the rate renewal amount no more than a few tenths of a percentage point. The actuary will not be providing another report until his Final Rate Setting Report that will be presented to the Trustees at the July meeting. The decision to exclude the City of Hailey was purely based on the prior communications the III-A had with the City and to be conservative with the rate renewal.

During the Trustees discussion at their Board meeting, it was apparent that they were committed to a conservative approach regarding the rate decrease. They opted to reinforce the reserves while preparing a budget and policies that will allow the initial startup and assessment monies to be paid back to the founding members over the next few years. Choosing to reinforce the reserves shows their commitment to stability for the pool and their interest in having a minimal increase or decrease again next year. The additional 8% will be used to stabilize future rates and is still owned by the members of the III-A rather than being profit for an insurance company.

I apologize for not being able to respond in time for your June 15th meeting due to responding to several requests for information from potential new members following the AIC Conference. Please let me know if you have any additional questions.

Thank you,

Re: III-A

Dear Ms. Manning:

It was a pleasure meeting you and Jacob Catmull on May 18, 2015. I believe if you and Jacob were the primary contacts at the inception of III-A, the City of Hailey's experience within III-A would have been better. When we met, you told us that III-A would provide us with an assessment of whether several cities, including Hailey, would be entitled to a 10% rate reduction based on our positive health record, and a rate modification factor based on the III-A policy, provided Hailey remained a member of III-A. I have been advised that III-A did not provide these assessments at the recent III-A meeting.

Contrary to a newspaper report of a Hailey City Council meeting conducted on June 1, 2015, the City of Hailey has not made a decision to withdraw from III-A. The Hailey City Council continued its discussion about health insurance options until June 15, 2015, to allow the city an opportunity to gather quotes from other providers and to analyze any potential reimbursement from III-A. At the moment, we only know a preliminary estimate for III-A contributions for the next fiscal year, but the estimate does not include Hailey employees, nor does it account for Hailey's rate discount factors.

It is not appropriate for III-A to assume that Hailey will withdraw from III-A. We have been forthright and honest during our membership of III-A. Based on several reasons, we have asked to withdraw early. In response, III-A has steadfastly stated Hailey can withdraw but only if it pays a substantial penalty. Hailey kept its contractual obligations and performed consistently within our agreement. We expect III-A to keep its contractual obligations and to treat Hailey consistently with the other III-A members.

Please provide Hailey with a preliminary estimate of contributions for the next fiscal year based on a pool of III-A members which includes Hailey and also provide Hailey with a projected adjustment or discount based on Hailey's health record.

Amy Manning
June 11, 2015

Without the III-A information, we will not be able to make an informed decision. Therefore, I expect the City Council will have to conduct a special meeting later this month. The latest available date to discuss health insurance options is June 29, 2015. Before June 29, 2015, please provide us with the actuary's preliminary estimate of contributions with Hailey included in the rates. We would appreciate receiving the information on mod factors and 10% rate reductions on Monday, June 15, 2015, but in any circumstance not later than June 29, 2015.

If you have any questions, please contact either me or Heather Dawson. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Fritz X. Haemmerle
