Lyn Drewien Selected as Hailey Public Library Director

Hailey Public Library Board of Trustees Concludes Critical Hire

(Hailey, Idaho) – The Hailey Public Library Board has selected Lyn Drewien as its new library director. Drewien’s library career spans more than a decade, including time at both the Hailey Public Library and The Community Library in Ketchum. In 2016, she earned her Master of Library and Information Science degree from San Jose State University. Drewien will leave her position at Blaine County where she has worked for the past two years as their Grants and Procurement Specialist.

A thirty-year resident of the Wood River Valley (and Hailey Public Library user), Drewien brings many years of experience and volunteerism to her new position. Monday, August 31st will be Drewien’s first day as Hailey Public Library Director.

Drewien will replace LeAnn Gelskey who served as library director from 2010 until April of this year. Gelskey left the Hailey Public Library for a position with the Idaho Commission for Libraries as their Talking Book Service Program Supervisor. Laura Primrose has served as interim director since Gelskey left in April.
