STAFF REPORTS:

5:49:55 PM Lyn Drewien speaks about the summary at the new Town Center West, appreciative of this space, it has been used widely. Drewien gave a little overview of how the Library came to manage the space, re-wrote library policy in February 2022, March started slowly reserving, now it is busy. We are turning away people already. No charges yet, until upcoming ballroom dancing, will charge him, for profit use. Looking to apply for grant to help pay for youth services, for after-school activities and summer activities. 5:54:35 PM And having an architect looking how to best use Library space and outdoor space, Dennis remodeled the Community Library.

5:55:28 PM Horowitz, staffing, opportunity to Re-examine Our Town Newsletter, started in 1991, 60% is paper publication. Natural inclination is to go to electronic delivery, but want to poll citizens, survey, ask them, do you want to continue reading paper copy. May shorten it in the interim, will bring survey results back to council.

5:58:23 PM Thea, been meeting with Walking Fellows group, important to use the outdoor space, seen by more people that it is available for public to use. Wish to recognize, “parking day,” create more of a space for public. Had discussion, wants to create new committee, walking fellows group think it would be a useful committee. Mayor to discuss this idea with Brian Yeager. 6:01:09 PM Budget related comment, propose increasing travel budget for council members, want to go to this conference out of state. Thea would like to know about pesticide use in our parks.

6:03:41 PM Martinez, Husbands seconds, motion passed unanimously.
